

JOB TITLE: Field Facilitators

Remote: Tanzania

Full time

IITA-TZ-2026-STS-004

Kilosa, Morogoro Region, Tanzania, United Republic of

Description

- Assist in project coordination between farmers, extension and BioSSA researchers with the assigned cluster.
- Assist with layout, planting and management of the trails
- Collect plant and soil data from established trials.
- Keep proper records of demonstration plots and the recorded data.
- Submit weekly report on the demonstration trials to BioSSA scientists.
- Arrange field visits to the demonstration trials as directed by BioSSA project Coordinator
- Train farmers in proper handling and application of effective bio-input products.
- Any other duties that may be assigned by project management.

Requirements

- The candidate should have a Diploma in Agriculture with specialization on crops research and management.

Core Competencies

- Relevant work experience in agricultural research of at least 3 years.
- Good understanding of the maize and beans cropping system in Tanzania.
- Ability to work with and maintain a good relationship with farmers.
- A good Knowledge of farming systems in Siha District
- Be a good team player and highly self-motivated.

APPLY HERE